such person's being or having been a Board member, employee, or agent of the Corporation or a Board member, employee, or agent of such other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, or by reason of such person's connection with the mission of the Corporation (including, without limitation, any suit brought by or in the name of the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses made by the Corporation pursuant to an undertaking or otherwise), provided (a) that said action, suit, or proceeding is prosecuted to a final determination and such person defends successfully on the merits or otherwise or (b) in the absence of such a final determination in such person's favor, that the Board determines that such person acted in good faith and in a manner the individual reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that such person had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful. The determinations contemplated by subclause (b) of the proviso clause of the foregoing sentence must be made (a) by the Board by a simple majority vote of the members of the Board not parties to such action, suit, or proceeding, even though less than a quorum, or (b) by a committee of such members of the Board designated by a simple majority vote of such members of the Board, even though less than a quorum, or (c) if such quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable and a quorum of disinterested members of the Board so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion. If a person meets the requirements set forth in the proviso clause of the first sentence of this Article 8.01 with respect to some matters in an action, suit, or proceeding, but not with respect to others, such person may be indemnified as to the former. The provisions of this Article 8.01 are in addition to, and not by way of limitation of, the provisions of Articles 8.02 and 8.03.

Article 8.02. MANDATORY INDEMNIFICATION IN GENERAL

To the extent that a present or former Qualifying Person or any other present or former Board member, employee, or agent of the Corporation or person who is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a Board member, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, or any person otherwise connected with the mission of the Corporation, in each case whom the Board has designated as entitled to be indemnified pursuant to the provisions of this Article 8.02, has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit, or proceeding of a type referred to in Article 8.01, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, or in any action, suit, or proceeding brought by such person to enforce a right to indemnification or to advancement of expenses hereunder, such person must be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith. The provisions of this Article 8.02 are in addition to, and not by way of limitation of, the provisions of Articles 8.01 and 8.03.

Notwithstanding the provisions of the foregoing sentence, except as provided in Article 8.02 with respect to actions, suits, and proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification or advancement of expenses, the Corporation is required to indemnify a Qualifying Person in connection with an action, suit, or proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such Qualifying Person only if such action, suit, or proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board. In the case of any action, suit, or proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation: (a) no indemnification is made with respect to any claim, issue, or matter as to which the person seeking indemnification has been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless, and only to the extent that, the court in which such action or suit was brought or the Superior Court of the District of Columbia has determined upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for reasonable expenses as such court deems proper; and (b) indemnification extends only to expenses and specifically not extend to any liability.

Article 8.05. ADVANCES OF EXPENSES

The Corporation may allow advances against expenses on terms fixed by the Board subject to an obligation to repay if indemnification proves unwarranted. Expenses actually and reasonably incurred by a person in defending any action, suit, or proceeding in which such person is involved as a party or otherwise by reason of such person's being or having been a Qualifying Person must be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such person to repay such amounts if it is ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation.

Article 8.06. APPLICABILITY

The indemnification provided by this Article VIII is not exclusive of any other rights to which any person seeking indemnification may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of disinterested members of the Board, or otherwise, both as to action in an official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office; it continues after such a person has ceased to hold the office and it inures to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such a person. This Article VIII must not be construed to authorize indemnification in any case or for any liability or expense where such indemnification would not be lawful. This Article VIII applies to actions, suits, or proceedings made or commenced after the adoption hereof, whether arising from acts or omissions to act occurring before or after the adoption hereof.

Article 8.07. INSURANCE

The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a member of the Board, employee, or agent of the Corporation or of any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise which such person served at the request of the Corporation against all liability and expenses incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not such person may have a right to be indemnified by the Corporation against such liability and expenses under this Article VIII. Article 8.09. SEVERABILITY

If any clause, provision or application of this Article is determined to be invalid, the other clauses, provisions or applications are not affected but remain in full force and effect.
